

Dream of the morning of January 31, 2021

THE BOARDROOM

Greg Hood

In the dream, Dutch and I were in a large board room. The room had a long table, like many rooms where meetings and business are conducted. There were many chairs as well. The room was on the top floor of a large, high-rise building. I found it interesting that Dutch and I entered this boardroom first in the dream. We were early, and Dutch was wearing a tie. He kept adjusting his tie and said, "I hate these things. I am ready to take this damn thing off." (I don't recall in the dream that we had entered the building. We were just there at the door of the large board room before entering the room.)

As we walked in, the room was empty. We were early. We walked over to the windows surrounding the room and began looking out. Dutch remarked, "Hood, all we can see from here are the clouds." I said, "You are right; we have seen a lot from the clouds lately, but nothing like we are getting ready to see." As I said this, the door to the room opened, and Tim, Clay, Randy and Jacquie walked into the room. Tim commented to us, "You guys are early. When you are early, all you can do is look out the window and enjoy the clouds." It was like he was poking good fun at us. Clay spoke up, saying, "Man, I just had a déjà vu. I feel like we have been here before."

The doors opened again a few seconds later, and Kenneth Copeland walked in. He said, "Am I late? Timing is everything to me. It took me a while to get here, but I am here. Let's get started." Dutch replied, "We can't yet. The others are not here. I believe they will be along shortly." Kenneth then replied to Dutch, "Dutch, I am so glad you are here and that you got here before me. I would not have liked being here in this room alone if I got here first." He continued, "I have heard so much about you Dutch. I wasn't sure about all that you were doing in the nation. I did not know what to do with you, but an angel visited me and gave me the scripture Luke 19:11-13. The angel instructed me to go into business with you. I have been very excited ever since. I know we are about to make each other very rich." Kenneth looked intently at Dutch and said, "You have been way out of my wheelhouse, but I am catching up. I won't be behind any longer." Dutch replied as he took his tie off and said, "It's so awesome to have you at the table, Kenneth." Dutch then leaned over to me, as we stood by the large windows, and whispered, "I am not even sure why we're here." Dutch then dropped his tie into a waste basket that was by the window where we stood and said, "let's all take a seat, they will be here any second now." We all took our seats on one side of the table.

As we did, the large glass doors to the board room opened again, and Gordon Lindsay, Charles Spurgeon, Kenneth Hagan, a man named Dean (whom I did not know but felt an excitement and a connection with him because my middle name is Dean) walked in with Jesus. They sat on the opposite side of the table. Kenneth Hagan said, "Let's start the transfer and merger. Is everyone ready? Those on our side of the table looked at one another like, "What's being transferred? What merger?" Gordon Lindsay smiled big and said, "There is much that has been held back from your generation, but now it's time to release what we have and what is yours to you. It's your inheritance and your assignment!" Then, Gordon Lindsay and Kenneth Hagan simultaneously slid papers across the table. Gordon Lindsay slid his papers to Dutch, and Kenneth Hagan slid his papers to Kenneth Copeland. I was able to see what was written on those papers. They both had "KINGDOM DECREE - TITLE DEED" written on them.

The document that Kenneth Copeland had received looked amazing. The document was trimmed in gold around the edges of the paper and had an amazing picture of a crown at the top of it. It looked as if it was new. It had been kept well. It had written on it, just under Kingdom Decree - Title Deed, in bold, "RENEWED FOUNDATION ALIGNMENT," and just under it was written, "HARVEST, SIGNS, WONDER and MIRACLES." There were scriptures written out in bold letters. I could see some of them clearly. The two that stood out to me were Mark 16:15-20 and the Book of Acts (the entire book). There were more scriptures there, but I could not clearly see them. Many names had been attached at the end of this document as signatures. I knew these names were the names of great soul winners and preachers of the Gospel. Jesus said, "Ken, sign underneath T.L.'s signature and give the document to Dutch." Kenneth signed the document and said, "AHHH YES!" He was very excited. Then he slid it down the table to Dutch. Jesus addressed Dutch and said, "Use your ring to make My mark on it." As Dutch did this, the pages of the document, which had been beautiful paper, became a beautiful cloth-like material.

The attention in the dream was then turned to the document that had been given to Dutch by Gordon Lindsay. The document was like an ancient scroll. I could see clearly that the document Dutch received had written just under Kingdom Decree - Title Deed, in bold: EKKLESIA MANDATE and just under that was also written: HARVEST, SIGNS, WONDER, MIRACLES and the REAPING OF WORLDS. Under this, I could see Isaiah 9:1-7, Isaiah 22:22, Daniel 7:27, and Revelation 11:15 written out. I remember in the dream thinking, I know these scriptures! On our side of the table, we begin to whisper to one another, "This is it. This is that!" We all begin to express much excitement.

Like the document given to Kenneth Copeland, there were many signatures at the end of the document given to Dutch. These signatures were of those who, throughout history, had notable supernatural ministries. There were many names that I did not recognize, but I did recognize many of the names attached to this document. Jesus said, "Dutch, sign underneath Dean's signature and use your ring to make My mark on it. Dutch did as requested, and the documents began to take on a light and seemed to breathe like it was alive.

Jesus said (with a very kingly look on His face), "It's done. The merger and transfer is complete. The bowls are full and ready to be poured out." Jesus then called Charles Spurgeon's name. He said, "Charlie, make the decree." Charles Spurgeon then stood to his feet, pushed his chair away from himself, pulled a cigar away from his mouth and began to release mighty decrees over each of us. The gentleman named Dean also stood up and moved from his seat to where we all were sitting. He poured oil on our heads and laid his hands on us as Charles Spurgeon decreed. When Dean touched us, it felt like electric shock waves were shooting through our bodies. We were charged with a charge like none of us had ever experienced. When they finished their part of this assignment, they sat back down. All of us were notably changed.

Jesus then took the documents into His hands and breathed on them. These documents that were in one state changed into another. They became matching capes (mantles). Jesus then stood up and placed one on Kenneth Copeland's and one on Dutch. He then said, "The clock has started. The angelic movement has begun. Steward this well." Those who entered the room with Jesus disappeared, not leaving through the door, just disappeared.

We all sat there profoundly impacted by what had just happened. We began discussing, planning, and strategizing what was next.

I then noticed an old Case XX pocketknife on the table. It was intentionally left on the table and left open. I reached to feel my pocket to make sure my knife was there, and it was. I then noticed there was a small engraving on the blade. The inscription had the name "Sheets" on it. Dutch said, Tim, I believe that was left for you, big brother. Pick it up and put it in your pocket.
